FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 7, 1885.

Mr. J. W. Rodgers, of the Bald Knob precinct, is announced to-day as a candidate for Jailor.

Mrs. Judge Wm. Lindsay gave a hallow e'en party to a number of her young lady friends on Saturday evening.

That portion of the old Market-house building next the Railroad depot is being fitted up for a bar-room and eating establishment.

The unusual number of drunken men in town Monday was very good evidence that candidates were dealing out stagger juice pretty freely.

The office of jailor seems to be the most sought after of any of the county offices. There are now about fifteen candidates out and they are still coming.

The Chautauqua Circle will meet in the lecture room of the Christian Church Monday evening at 7 o'clock. The presence of every member is desired.

Mr. Mike Buckley has torn down the two-story brick house adjoining his residence at the foot of Ann street, and is putting up a handsome brick residence on the lot.

Mr. W. B. Hughes, of Louisville, son of Mr. W. J. Hughes, of this city, and Miss Susie Jones, of Eminence, will be married at that place on the 18th of this month.

Mr. W. A. Smoot, of the Bald Knob Precinct, has left on our table one of the largest beets we have seen for some time. It is 12 inches long, 24 inches in circumference, and weighs 7 pounds.

The bursting of the water pipes still continues. The twelve-inch main burst in front of the City Hall about 2 o'clock Sunday morning flooding the street and several cellars before it could be shut off.

Rev. George Darsie goes to Bagdad, Shelby county, Tuesday to commence a series of meetings, which will continue two or three weeks. He will be at home on Sunday mornings during that time to fill his pulpit.

Mr. Jas. Andrew Scott has won the suit against him involving his title to one-half the Drennon Springs property and steps will probably now be taken to improve the property and make it a popular summer resort.

Rev. H. A. M. Henderson, D. D., has gained considerable reputation as a lecturer in the Northern cities. His lecture entitled "The sword of Grant and Lee, or the South in Arms and Peace," has been delivered before immense audiences.

Our friend, Mr. John A. Bell, of Hatton, has placed us under obligations for a box of nice vegetables and apples, for which he will accept thanks. It contained among other things, a large specimen of a new variety of squash, which he called the Forker, and it was delightful.

A young gent of this city started to go fourteen miles out in the country a few nights since to see his girl, and when in two miles of her home his buggy broke down. Rather than leave his buggy and ride the horse bareback the balance of the distance, he pulled the vehicle up in a fence corner and walked the twelve miles back home, leading his horse. He don't think as much of country girls now as he did.

The Democratic County Committee met on Monday, passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Col. S. N. Hodges, deceased, the member of the Committee from Peak's Mill, elected Mr. Larry Hannon, of that precinct, to fill the vacancy, adopted a resolution that it was inexpedient, at this time, to call a primary election to nominate candidates for the offices to be filled at the next August election, and adjourned until the first Monday in December.

There will be a blue ribbon temperance meeting at the Court House to-night. All are invited to attend.

Messrs. John Cochran & Co., purchased on Monday from the assignee of the Geo. C. Buchanan Co. the old Pepper Distillery property above the city, on the river, for $510.

Mr. Levi H. Scott, a thoroughly reliable gentleman of the Bald Knob precinct, is to-day announced as a candidate for Jailor. If elected he will make a first-class officer.

Capital Lodge, No. 239, I. O. G. T., will meet in Masonic Hall on Thursday evening next, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired, as business of importance will be transacted.

The Harrodsburg Tobacco Fair comes off on the 28th of this month and the exhibition of the Scott County Tobacco Association on the 5th of December. The premium lists of both are liberal.

Rev. Dr. A. C. Caperton delivered an interesting lecture upon Mexico at the Baptist Church, Friday evening of last week, to a full audience, though the attendance was not near so large as the lecture deserved.

The leaky gutter at the south end of the wooden bridge has not only been a nuisance every rainy day for months, but will again open the sidewalk for another job, if not abated. Can't the city lavish a dollar or two for repairs?

Esoteric Lodge, No. 582, A. Y. M., meets in regular monthly communication on Wednesday evening next at 7 o'clock. There will be work in the E. A. and F. C. degrees. Visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend, and members are earnestly requested to be present.

The young colored men of the city have rented the rooms over Henry Samuel's barbershop on St. Clair street, neatly fitted them up, and opened a reading room there, where they can go and while away a leisure hour or two reading, instead of going to a bar-room. This is a first-rate move and should be encouraged.

Messrs. John Milam and Logan McKee have procured all the machinery for their grist and hominy mill. They are busily engaged in fitting it up. They will use a large water motor to drive the mills. Mr. Logan McKee has given up his position in the U. S. Engineer's office, under Col. Sublett, and will give his whole time and attention to it.

Persons having children large enough to run about the streets, should instruct them not to interfere with the new fire hydrants. One or two of them have had to be taken up on account of boys taking off the caps and filling them with rocks, and on Thursday, when a test was being made of the hose used by the Fire Department, in South Frankfort, a spool which had been placed in the hydrant, was forced into the nozzle of the hose and caused considerable trouble.

There was an unusually large crowd in town Monday attending County Court. The sales on the street were quite lively, but prices were low. Mr. Henry Showalter, auctioneer, reports the following sales: 16 head of cattle at $21 per head; 8 head of yearling cattle at $18 per head; one four-year-old gelding $84.50; 1 three-year-old filly $67; 2 cows at $25 each; 2 head of mules at $80 per head; cow and calf, $12; 1 three-year-old stallion, $100.10; 4 head of long yearling cattle, $14.60 per head; 12 head of two-year-old cattle at $18.75 per head.

George McLaughlin, one of the Circus train robbers, was found guilty in the Circuit Court Saturday morning, and sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary. Mr. Wm. McCloy, one of the jurors, was taken violently ill in the Court House Friday night, during the argument of the case, and had to be carried to the room where the jury were locked up for the night, and back again in the morning. The cases of the other four Circus men engaged in the robbery were continued until the February term, the Court not having time to try them at this term. McLaughlin was taken on appeal.

A section of the pipe which runs from the pumping station to the reservoir burst Thursday morning, but there was four or five feet of water in the reservoir at the time, which was made use of to supply the city, and there has been no lack of water on account of the break until yesterday.

Personal.

Mr. J. W. Briggman, of Louisville, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Wickliffe Chapman has returned from a visit of several weeks to friends in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Maggie G. Clark, who has been visiting relatives in this city, left Monday morning for her home in Bourbon county.

Mrs. Chas. Bromley, of Maysville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bohannon at No. 510, Shelby street, South side.

Mrs. Walter Kelly, who has been visiting relatives here for several weeks, left yesterday morning for her home in Hopkinsville.

Rev. W. L. McEwan, of Wilmington, Delaware, who has been visiting his parents here for several weeks, left Tuesday night for home.

Misses Helen and Maria Lindsey left Tuesday evening for Warm Springs, North Carolina, where they will spend the winter for the benefit of the health of the former.

Dr. Beauchamp, of Owen county, a brother of J. O. Beauchamp, who was executed in this city in 1824, for the murder of Solomon P. Sharp, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. M. E. D. Smith, of Alabama, Mrs. Alexander, of Paducah, Ky., W. D. Aldridge, and Mrs. Howard, of Dallas, Texas, are visiting relatives at Mr. R. M. Aldridge's.

Mrs. Ruth Wilson, of Versailles, and her sister, Mrs. I. N. Prather, of Harrodsburg, daughters of Dr. Bell, of Lexington, have been visiting at the residence of John L. Scott this week.

Isaac Murphy, the champion colored jockey of the world, and wife are in the city for a few days. He has engaged to ride the horses of "Lucky" Baldwin, of California, for the seasons of 1886 and 1887 at a salary of $5,000 a season. The stock is said to be sent east to him, none of the mounts to be on the Pacific slope.

In Memory of Little Hallie Pence.

Little Hallie was suddenly called to her Heavenly home Sunday evening, Oct. 25th, 1885; her spirit took flight, passed through the gate ajar, and borne on angels' wings to her Saviour's breast. Her death has cast a gloom over the home circle. She was a sweet, sensitive child—the daily delight of her mother's life, just as she was budding into that period of life most interesting to parents; that period when the prattle of childhood contains much sweeter than earth can yield. By seeing and hearing the dear little one, we too had learned to love her. The little chair will no more be placed at the table for Hallie. Put her little toys away. She will need them no more. Dear parents, grieve not about the dark and gloomy grave; for she is not there. It is only her body that fills the grave. Her pure spirit that gave life and beauty to this earthly tenement has gone to a far better home. Console yourselves, dear weeping ones, with the precious thought that you can meet her over there where she now looks in the smiles of God. No more grief, no more sorrow, no more pain and separation. Why the angel of death has chosen to withdraw the loved one from the fond embrace of her affectionate parents, sisters and brother's early in life, we do not understand; but God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform. You are forbidden to murmur, but not forbidden to regret this dark dispensation. What you have loved so tenderly while living here on earth you may still cherish with affectionate remembrance, cheered by the hope of meeting her again in the spirit land where she now is.

Safe at home with Jesus,
Safe from trouble and care,
Safe from the world's vexations;
Sin can not enter there.

MARRIED.

At the home of the bride, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 3d, 1885, by Rev. George Darsie, Mr. SAMPSON HENNING, of Madison county, and Miss SARAH E. WHITE, of this county, and MAMIE GERING, of Eminence.

On Wednesday, November 4th, 1885, at Eminence, Ky., by Elder W. S. Gilmer, Mr. SAMPSON HENNING, of Madison county, and Miss SARAH E. WHITE, of this county, and MAMIE GERING, of Eminence.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Bridgeport.

Snow last Monday.
Eggs are very scarce.
This is Bridgeport's gala day.
No new cases of scarlet fever.
Little Brownie Parrent has recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. J. B. Russell has returned home from a visit to relatives in Shelbyville.
Mr. F. M. Scofield was in Louisville last week replenishing his stock of goods.
Dr. Chinn, who has been very much indisposed for some days, is convalescent.

Miss Hallie Russell has a bush with fifty-five true roses in full bloom on it. Beat that!

Mrs. Ann Russell and daughter, Mrs. Mary Brown Day, have both been quite sick recently.

Several families of this vicinity contemplate removing to Missouri about the first of December.

The Bridgeport school has resumed operations. The professor reports a busy time during his week's recess.

Miss Minnie Gaines, of Belle Point, has returned home from a visit to friends and relatives in this section.

The new South Benson Church House will be dedicated to-morrow. Services to commence at 10 o'clock. A cordial invitation to all.

We hope to see a full attendance of teachers and especially trustees and patrons at the annual meeting of the Teachers' Association to-day, which will convene in this town at 10 o'clock.

Teachers are required to comply strictly with the law; they do it, and this is right. Trustees and patrons are also required to comply with the law, but they won't do it, and this is wrong. "Consistency, thou art a jewel."

Joe Tracy, who had the misfortune to have a mule throw him some two weeks since, and from the effect of which he has been entirely disabled and undergone considerable suffering, we are glad to report, is much better.

Messrs. J. A. Moore and Jas. Flynn have erected a saw-mill on Mr. Jos. Robinson's farm near this town, where they are now engaged in sawing lumber. Such enterprising gentlemen deserve the thanks of the entire community.

John W. Payne and W. H. Hawkins, candidates respectively for County Clerk and Assessor, were in our "barn" recently, working up the interest of their candidacy. We wish all the boys could get a slice, but some will certainly be left.

Mr. Wm. Miller has been awarded the contract for the construction of that part of the Harrisonville and Jacksonville pike located between and connecting the Louisville and Danville pike with the Bridgeport and Farmdale pike. And still the "boom" goes on.

Miss Bettie Daugherty died at the residence of Dr. W. Lee Crutcher near this place Sunday evening, Oct. 20th, after a lingering illness with consumption. She was an exemplary Christian, having many years since consecrated her all to the service of Christ. She will be sadly missed from the household where she for so many years was an important factor. May the grace that is all sufficient, sustain in this hour of affliction, his sincere desire.

Antioch.

Preaching at Antioch to-morrow at 11 A. M.

William Polsgrove made a trip to Harrodsburg last week, prospecting.

Another rabbit hunter in the field. Look out, boys! What luck, Charles?

Last Sunday was a cold, blustering day. It is now time to see to your wood piles.

Mrs. James Gore and Mrs. Geo. Shackelford spent last Sunday with Mrs. S. E. Silvers.

Mrs. Geo. Shackelford and son, Luther P., of Winchester, are visiting her father, James Gore.

Mrs. John Rodgers, of Woodford, and Mrs. Mary Fennell, of Frankfort, visited Mrs. T. D. Hales last week.

Mr. George Gore and wife went to Owen county last week. They returned last Monday, accompanied by Miss Janie Jenkins.

Teachers' Association meets at Bridgeport to-day at 10 A. M. Come every one who feels an interest in the common school cause.

Mrs. Jack Gore and Mrs. James Bates, of South Frank, were out one day last week, visiting Messrs. Butler Gore's and Robt. Owens' families.

We are sorry that the types made us make such a great mistake in your last issue, in regard to Mrs. Walston. We certainly wrote fattest hogs, not fattest boys.

While Jack Gore and his hands were hard at work on the pike last Tuesday, some one went to their camp and stole several articles. Uncle Jack swears vengeance.

Mr. Jack Gore has proved himself to be the "boss turn-pike" on the new pike; it is said that he has done more work, considering the number of hands employed than any of the others. He has all the grading done, and two-thirds of the metal on. "Hurrah for Uncle Jack."

Forks of Elkhorn.

Mr. A. W. Macklin made a flying trip to Louisville this week.

Mr. A. Stedman went to Louisville this week to lay in his winter stock of dry goods, &c.

Miss Emma Stedman spent last Saturday and Sunday here with Miss Virgie Stedman.

Found a Cass South found a crib of old corn within twenty steps of his store. Cass had forgotten all about it.

The gentlemen with the blues stole a kiss one evening last week in church from the nose cheek of a sweet little maid. What a cruel man to steal in church.

Mr. W. T. Featherston lost a fine mule last week, valued at $100. It was stolen from the office of County Judge, and shall be out in the close of the polls on primary election day in 1886.

Wm. Graham, of Stedmanville neighborhood, has a new process for making wine and a new material to make it with—wild grapes and sorghum. William has applied for a patent.

The O. F. C. mail line from Spring Station, Va. to Winchester, Covell and Culery's, is running opposition to the Zip-coon line. Mr. Jo. Snully, the driver and proprietor, is an accommodation man. He says on account of the count of the great opposition with the Coon line that he will in the future carry half-gallon packages at quart prices.

The residence of Mr. J. S. Stedman, at Stedmanville, caught fire last Thursday night in the bed room of Misses Lucy and Emma Stedman. Miss Lucy was awakened by the flames and smoke and almost suffocated rushed out and gave the alarm. The family and neighbors were soon around and by hard work they extinguished the flames. $200 would hardly cover the damages done to the property. The cause of the fire was a defect in the flue near the grate insured.

We went to Bethel Church last Saturday to the Mission Circle meeting. District No. 1. We went out by Switzer and down the rocky bank. Any one who has ever gone that road in a cart can sympathize with us. We found a very fine sermon by Bro. Carter. We heard the great Mission and Sunday-school work discussed. It was thought best to postpone the speaking until Sunday on account of the small crowd. We had a fine sermon from our able Bro. Caperton, of the Western Recorder, text 20-21 verses of Jude, a few verses from the Epistle to the Romans, a prayer by Bro. Bagby and song. We were then dismissed by Bro. Caperton. Bro. Bagby, Bro. Caperton and myself went home with Sisters Ruth Peun and Jennie, who entertained us very nicely.

Politics Too Much For Him.
A lady on Fifth Avenue, New York, lately summoned a doctor.

"Oh, doctor, my husband is nearly dead. He attended a caucus last night. He made four speeches and promised to be with his fellow-citizens again to-day. But oh, doctor, he looks nearly dead."

"Has he been in politics long?"

"No, only last year. He worked hard for James McCauley's election."

"He will get well, madam. He has a stomach for any disease, if he worked for him."

Political life, of short or long duration, is very exhausting, as is evident from the great mortality which prevails among public men. Ex. U. S. Senator B. H. Bruce, who has been long in public life, says:

"The other day, when stepping into a car at a crossing, I found Dr. — within, who eyed me up and down in a surbared way, remarking:

"Why, Senator, how well you look."

"Well, I feel pretty well," I answered."

The doctor uttered an incredulous reply, the Senator frankly told him, in answer to an inquiry, that it was Warner's safe one which accomplished for him what the profession had failed to do. Senator Bruce says his friends are very much astonished at this revelation.

Power To The Gods.
Overwhelmingly Defeated.

Have used Tongaline in a case of neuralgia of 35 years standing. For the last few years the patient has been unfit for work nearly all the time. Has not been free from pain for many years. Was suffering extreme when he began taking Tongaline. He has not had a severe attack since beginning its use eight days since. This is remarkable from the fact that he has worked in the sun, which he has not been able to do for twenty years. It is a splendid nerve tonic.
